

Email us at lpmagazine@bbc.com or write to Lonely Planet Magazine,
BBC Worldwide, 201 Wood Lane, London W12 7TQ

✉ YOUR LETTERS

I went there!

I read about the Rolex Middle Sea Race in October's 10 Easy Trips and, by chance, it fitted in with my holiday to Malta. The capital Valletta is a stunning city. Sandstone fortified walls contain beautiful buildings, each with its own intricate balcony. After exhausting the streets and courtyards, my wife and I went to the Upper Barracca Gardens to watch the race. Canon fire signalled the start, then countless yachts in the Grand Harbour raced off and we watched until they vanished over the horizon. We had a great day out thanks largely to your recommendation.
Andy Spence, Pinxton, Nottinghamshire

WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN?

Have you visited a great town or restaurant that other readers will love? Tell us about it at lpmagazine@bbc.com.

